THE AUTOBAHN

Alright! A two seater.

Corb, I need help.

Lincoln's exchange student for the 1984-85 year was Catrin Joh Böhm. Her host family was the Marlin Flynn family.

Cathy is originally from BädSackingen, West Germany where she lives with her father, mother, and younger brother.

Cathy's classes during the year included chorus, govt., American history, and two foods classes. She also took part in the fall musical, the spring play, and volleyball.

Some of Cathy's first-time experiences that took place in the USA were prom, horseback riding, and getting her hair cut short.

All the students at Lincoln will miss her bright and shining face, and we all wish her the best of luck with her future plans.

LET THE GOOD TIMES . . .

You guys are pretty brave going on the Screamin' Eagle.

It's been real!

Another exciting ride at Six Flags.

Where are the free samples?

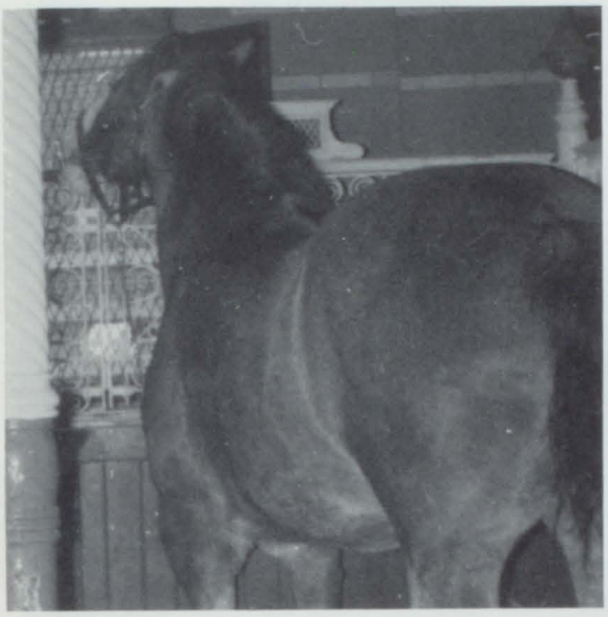

Smiling buddies!

On May 28, in the early morning while most people were sleeping, 39 seniors boarded a chartered bus headed to St. Louis for their class trip.

After arriving over an hour too early to tour the Anheuser-Busch Brewery, the seniors were turned loose in downtown St. Louis to do whatever they chose. After the free sample at the Brewery (pop, of course), the group checked in the Ramada Inn. When the settling in was completed, they traveled back to the heart of the city to the Spaghetti Factory. Then, of course, back to the hotel to relax. Video games, pool tables, a swimming pool, a whirl pool, and a sauna were available for use by the group.

Wednesday, for those who wanted breakfast, the bus went to a Ponderosa for a buffet. That day was left to be spent either at Six Flags, at the hotel, or both since the hotel was located adjacent to the park.

Thursday, breakfast was available again at Ponderosa; then the class was bussed to the Gateway Arch. The tram elevated them to the top where they could see for miles. Some ate at the McDonalds on the Mississippi River in their free time. Once more the class boarded the bus, this time taking them to their last stop — the St. Louis Zoo. Since the weather was not cooperative, the group only stayed for an hour before heading for home.

The Clydesdales are behind the Class of '85.

Thunder River was all wet.

I'll be real thirsty after all these stairs.

The 1984 Lincoln Summer Softball season started out to be a terrific one as the Panthers beat Monticello and Oxford Junction to win their tourney and won their first five conference outings. The girls ended their conference season with a record of 10-4 behind Clarence-Lowden and Guttenberg who tied for first place.

In sectional play, Lincoln advanced with a bye the first round and then trounced Olin in five innings the second round. In the final round, the girls lost to state-bound Springville. The Panthers still advanced to the first round of regionals, but lost against Lost Nation to end their season.

A banquet honoring the softball and baseball team members was held at the end of both seasons. The team members and some parents joined together to play softball and finish off the evening with a watermelon feed.

Coaching. What a drag.

The 1984 Lincoln baseball team was not large in size and due to the lack of participants and the rather large pitching staff, the team members were forced to rotate positions regularly. Only a few positions were declared parking zones where only one player occupied the spot for the entire season.

This year's pitching staff consisted of Scott Jackson, Deron Jurgensen, and Rick Scott. Depending on who was pitching, the infield shuffled around. But the players had no problems adjusting to their new positions. They worked together and finished the season with a 13-7 record overall, and a 10-4 conference standing to put them in second place behind the undefeated Mideast Conference champs, Clarence-Lowden.

The cross country team went a "long" way this year. Throughout the year, they strived to improve themselves and their times by running every night no matter what the weather was like. They ran an average of four to six miles a night, one night running nine miles against the wind and the rain.

The team proved themselves this year by winning four major meets that included: Delwood, Shellsburg, and Bellevue-Marquette, and Oxford Junction. They set many personal bests, one of which was by Willie Wells who broke the school record twice through the course of the season. The team went the distance by qualifying for the State Cross Country Meet and placing twelfth. Coach Linder, who was awarded District coach of the Year last year, commented that ending up at State with only two returning lettermen was quite an accomplishment.

HILLS AND CURVES

Lincoln's 1984 volleyball teams had a season of uphill battles and downhill slides. The varsity ended their season in a third place conference finish with a 5-2 record. The season started on a high note with the girls finishing second at a tough Cornell Invitational behind undefeated Class IA State Champions Mt. Vernon. The season came to an abrupt halt during Sectional play. They breezed past the first round by defeating Olin 3-0. Through a long, hard-fought second round match, the girls came up short, losing to Clarence-Lowden, 3-2.

Coach Marilee Oldorf commented, "The 1984 volleyball season progressed smoothly. This team had more specialists and played better in Saturday tournaments than any other Lincoln team of the past three years." She also stated that the Fresh-Soph team has a bright future ahead of them which showed by their outstanding conference record of 6-1. She concluded by saying, "Lincoln's underclassmen will have a challenge of filling eight talented graduating seniors' positions."

CLOSED FOR REPAIRS

The 1984 Lincoln football season was filled with bumps and bruises. The Panthers opened their season with a loss to Durant and from then on, it was all downhill. Hardly a game went by when a player was not injured, sometimes resulting in the loss of that member for the remainder of the year. Along with the injuries that the players received, the head-coach was forced to resign mid-season due to a medical problem. Because of the injuries that the players acquired during the season, their parents asked that they finish their season without playing non-conference Vinton. The request was honored and the Panthers ended their season with a conference record of 0-7, and an overall standing of 0-8. Despite the losing record, the team contributed five players to all-conference teams.

Annie! Annie! Are you all right?

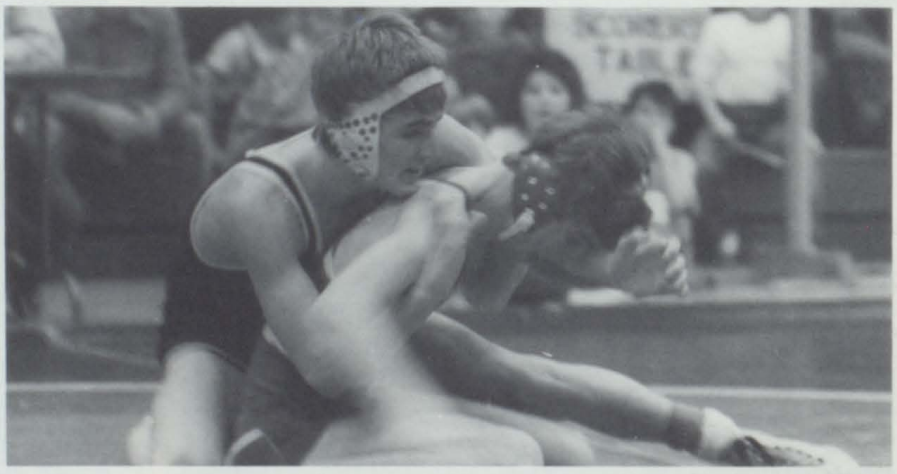

Galyn became Lincoln's 8th state qualifier.

The Lincoln Wrestling Squad compiled an 8-2 dual meet record this year despite graduating four state qualifiers the previous year. With the leadership of nine seniors on the Varsity team, they captured both the Tipton and Lincoln Invitational Tournaments. They received statewide recognition by being ranked 10th in the state by the Cedar Rapids Gazette.

Having no juniors and only two sophomores, the team called upon the aid of the freshmen to fill in some Varsity slots. They came through for the team many times, including the Alburnett dual, when the squad shut them out 69-0. This was the first shut-out in Lincoln's 22 year wrestling history. Lincoln's only state qualifier, Galyn Paulson, romped through sectionals and districts to make a statebound birth. He continued his winning streak up until the semifinal round at State where he lost his first match, a close, controversial match. Paulson wrestled his way back to fifth place to become only the third wrestler in Lincoln's history to place at the State Meet.

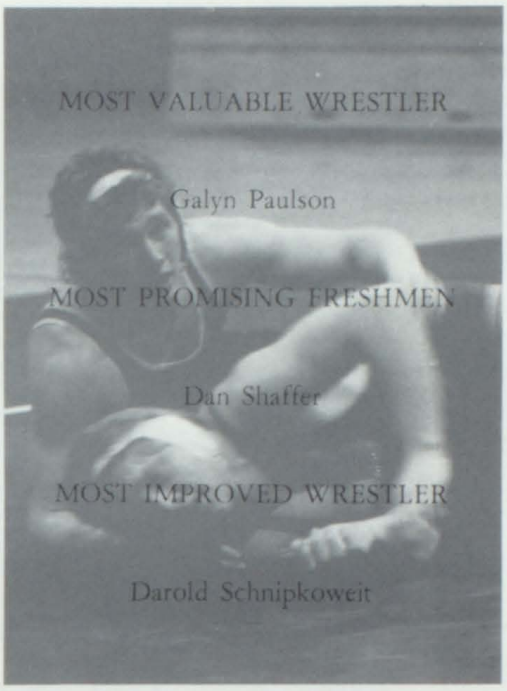

No tickling allowed.

You shouldn't be so harsh on those girls!!

The 1984-85 basketball season was a real rewarding experience for all those that participated. We ended the season with a 9 and 10 season which isn't an outstanding win/loss record but many individuals as well as team records were accomplished. We had three girls receive all conference recognition (shown in picture above). Sally Weber received 1st team Des Moines Register, 3rd Team Iowa Daily Press, and 1st team All Eastern Iowa, from the Quad City Times. We saw a great deal of improvement from our underclassmen and are anticipating a good year next year.

I've had just about enough.

Let's kill 'em.

I know last night wasn't your best game
You scored 12 points but 2 of the 12 gave you shame.
The shot you made looked really fine
You caught the pass from Sparky to put Lisbon up by 9.
The ball banked after hitting the rim
All Mr. Koering could say is "I don't know HIM!"
He made the shot look really slick
Then he heard his mom yell out, "Jeff, are you sick!!"
The thought of what he did finally struck him in the head
He rushed down the court holding his face, cause it was fluorescent red.
The game is over and we only lost by one
And thanks to Jeff Corbett, Lisbon finally won.
You may have been embarrassed, but don't you fret
You must always remember it was Lisbon's best game yet.

CARRYING THE CHECKERED FLAG

1984-85 proved to be an outstanding year for the Lincoln Girl's Track Squad. They had three main goals set for themselves, and they accomplished all three. Two of these goals came on May 13, the Girl's District Track Meet. Lincoln hosted Districts this year and also hosted some tough competition. The girls battled hard and won the District Meet along with sending five events to State. These events included the 10 Flight Shuttle Hurdle Relay, 100 M Hurdles, Shotput, Discus, and Long jump. Their third goal was to win the Mid-East Conference. This goal became reality on May 21 when the Lincoln Girls won the Mid-East Conference Championship with 140 points, 65 points ahead of second place Midland. All in all, the track squad was strong and full of talent. Only losing three seniors from the squad, the next few years look bright and successful for Lincoln Girl's Track.

I'm gonna get this guy.

Okay tummy, the food's coming.

Although the 1985 Lincoln Boys' Track Team was not large in number, the team was very successful. The squad brought home trophies from the Buttery Relays and the Northeast Relays and managed to place high in all their other meets. The squad's true talent showed at districts where they qualified three events in the state meet. Those qualifying were: 800M Run — Willie Wells; 3200M Relay — Joe Corbin, Pat Brady, Chris Boyd, and Willie Wells; and the 1600M Medley — John Butler, Chad Kleppe, Chris Boyd, and Pat Brady. The Spring Medley ran its way to a 5th place finish in the Boys' State Meet.

THE ROAD TO OLYMPIC GLORY

1984 Homecoming court: Jodi Brendes, Steve Doser, Tim Davidson, Janette Jurgensen, Shelly Pruess, Bruce Lehrman, Cathy Joh, Chad Kleppe, and Kriss Lund.

Loose your place, Chad?

You know that we're good.

1984 Homecoming Queen and King.

The announcement of the Queen and King came during the pep rally on Friday. This year's candidates were Kriss Lund and Chad Kleppe, Jodi Brendes and Steve Doser, Shelly Pruess and Bruce Lehrman, and Cathy Joh was an honorary candidate. The 1984 Queen and King were Janette Jurgensen and Tim Davidson.

The official crowning of the Queen and her court came during the dance which was held on Saturday night. A disc jockey from KRNA was there to play the tunes, and he even brought along his own magic show.

Please don't let it get in my hair.

Eat, Ruby, eat!

Where are your shoes, Janette?

Going for a cruise, girls?

Tipping a few, guys?

What a bunch of hams.

Ed Banach, the Grand Marshall.

1984 Homecoming started out with the traditional dress up days. During the week, you could see people dressed in Hawaiian get up to old striped farmer's overalls. The student council also kept spirit going with buttons. On Friday, school was dismissed at 2:30 so everyone had time to prepare for the parade and pep rally which began at 4:00. The parade had a special Grand Marshall, Ed Banach, an Olympic Gold Medalist in the 1984 Olympics. After the parade, everyone met at the football field to watch the skits and eating contests.

DIM LIGHTS

I can't believe I ate the whole thing.

Aren't we beautiful?

The 1984-85 Junior-Senior Prom was held on Saturday, April 20th, at the Mechanicsville Legion Hall. The night started out with a fabulous meal of chicken and pork chops which was followed by the traditional wills and prophecies. Afterwards, everyone went upstairs to dance in the Hawaiiam sunset using the theme "Almost Paradise." After the dance, everyone had a chance to win many prizes at the Las Vegas Night that was organized by several junior and senior parents. If you got tired of gambling, you could take a break and enjoy some movies in another room. A fun time was had by everyone.

We really are the children!!

Lincoln's FFA Officers

The 1984-85 school year was a successful one for the Lincoln FFA Chapter. The Lincoln FFA grew in size with the addition of six new greenhand members. The officers for the 1984-85 year were Bruce Lehrman — Pres., Chad Kleppe — Vice Pres., Christa Driscoll — Sec., Brian Gutwiler — Sen., Angie Domer — Rep., and Brad Jackson — Treas.

The Chapter conducted numerous events during the year. The FFA test plot and hog show both showed improvements over the previous years. The February FFA Sweetheart Dance was successful with Angie Domer being crowned the new Sweetheart for 1985. Also in February, five members competed in the sub-district and district contest. Bruce Lehrman received gold awards at both levels. During the summer, Brian Gutwiler, Chad Kleppe, Bruce Lehrman, and Tim Poduska went innertubing down the Apple River in Wisconsin as an end of the year expedition. Overall, the 1984-85 year was a year for growth and challenges for the Lincoln FFA Chapter.

The Individual Speech Team was a powerful squad of competitors this year. Eight individuals traveled to Central City on March 2 to compete in District competition. Seven individuals came home with I ratings. Those seven moved out to compete in Ottumwa on March 23 at the State level. All seven returned to Lincoln with I ratings. Christie Block showed her expertise and succeeded in representing Lincoln at the All-State Festival on April 15. This marked the end of a highly successful season for a young Lincoln Speech Team. Just wait 'til next year!

Please! No interruptions!

Sir, you dropped your hankie.

"Once Upon a Mattress" is an adult version of "The Princess and the Pea." The court of King Sextimus and Queen Aggravain is visited by a vulgar Princess from the swamps named Winnifred. When innocent and spoiled Prince Dauntless falls in love with Winnifred, the Princess has to prove herself worthy of Dauntless's hand in marriage.

FOOLS

Yes, they do smell funny.

HELP! I fell down.

Take two aspirin and call me in the morning.

Did you hear the one about . . .

"Fools" by Neil Simon, was Lincoln's 1985 spring play. Leon Tolschinsky had finally landed his first job as a school teacher in the idyllic Russian village of Kulyeuchikov. When he arrives, he discovers people sweeping dust from their stoops back into their houses, and people who think if you milk a cow upside down you get more cream. Kulyeuchikov has been cursed for 200 years with chronic stupidity; and the desperate townspeople hire Leon hoping he could break the curse. Of course Leon breaks the curse, but not before he falls in love, feigns stupidity himself, and of course, marries his true love to live happily ever after. The Lincoln Players demonstrated their fine abilities once again. After all, it isn't easy being stupid — or is it?

A BLOW OUT

In her first year of teaching, Miss DeBoer learned a lot right along with the band. She felt they improved each time they performed. At small groups contest, Lincoln received the highest percentage of I ratings; but at large group contests, they received a II. Lincoln also hosted the Mid-East Conference Band Festival on January 15. The guest conductor was Dr. Tim Topelewski. Miss DeBoer commented that this year's band was a very talented group of musicians led by a strong senior class.

Good Caption!

This year's Annual Staff is best summed up by a quote from Mrs. Lambert, the sponsor, "This is the first time since the seven years I've been here that we've sent the minimum pages required for our first deadline. This is also the first year that the members of Annual Staff were interviewed. Some of the things that were considered were responsibility, creativeness, past performances in all classes, and attendance records." This is Mrs. Lambert's last year at Lincoln. She will be missed very much.

Communications class did a lot of things for the newspaper this year. If there was an article to write, nothing stopped the class from covering the story. The sponsor, Mrs. "O," pulled strings to get the class to see the President with free passes and some press passes which allowed them into an area occupied only by major news networks. Though they met some difficulties, the students also exercised freedom of the press in both articles AND cartoons.

You're supposed to be watching the game like everyone else.

The Junior High football team ended the season with a 5-0 record outscoring their opponents 142-34. As individuals, they all did very well; and as a team, they should be very proud. Even though they had some bad times, they always pulled out a win. Keep up the good work in the future.

BUMP AHEAD

Shannon demonstrating the bump.

The Lincoln Jr. High volleyball team ended their season with the eighth grade team splitting their match record 3-3. The seventh grade team had a record of two wins and four losses. There was a total of 21 girls out for volleyball this year, ten eighth grade girls and eleven seventh grade girls.

The Lincoln "Nipper" grappling squad came off the mat with a 3-4-1 record. Their dual standings were as follows:

Lincoln	53	Tipton	53
	37	Midland	36
	32	West Branch	26
	11	Mt. Vernon	57
	23	Midland	40
	41	Alburnett	28
	6	Lisbon	31
	9	Lisbon	28

Coach Terry Lessmeier stated, "We were young and few, but a very coachable crew."

Nice pass!

The Lincoln Jr. High Girls Basketball teams weren't as successful as the Jr. High Boys. The 7th grade had a record of 0-5. They played two really close games, losing to Lisbon by one and to Midland by two. High scorer for the 7th grade was Shannon Orthner with 35 points. She also led with 14 rebounds.

The 8th grade were a little more fortunate and ended the season with a 1-7 record. The team consisted of seven players which didn't allow them much versatility but they still played tough. Stacy Cribbs led the team with 81 points while Tracy Jensen led with 27 rebounds and 18 steals.

Coach Oldolf commented that she plays each girl to get experience and not to win the game.

Mrs. "O", it's a basketball not a gun.

Have you used your Right Guard today?

Here balley, balley.

A sprinkle a day helps keep the opponents away.

The Panther's Jr. High Boys Basketball team had a successful season. The seventh grade team cruised to a 7-1 record, while the eighth grade team stayed close behind at 6-2.

The seventh grade lost only to Lincoln's all-time rival C-L, but made a quick turnaround by defeating Bennett the next game, 44-6. The leading scorer for the seventh grade was Todd Robinson, pouring in 106.

The eighth grade was equally successful losing only two games to Olin and C-L. They were both hard fought games, but Lincoln came up short by two and ten points, respectively. The leading scorer for the eighth grade was Doug Hoffman, tallying up 121.

The fine talent and record of the eighth grade team should be a great addition to the Panthers Varsity program next year, while the seventh grade will be trying to improve their record to an undefeated eighth grade season.

Coach Randall Perkins commented, "For having very few 8th graders, we placed very well in every meet. The 7th graders were very consistent and should be a very good team next year."

SOUND YOUR HORN

The Lincoln Junior High Band participated in a variety of activities this year. After marching in Lincoln's homecoming parade, the seventh and eighth graders held their own solo ensemble on March 16 scoring mostly "ones." Looking back on the accomplishments, Pam DeBore (Band Instructor) commented, "There's a lot of potential."

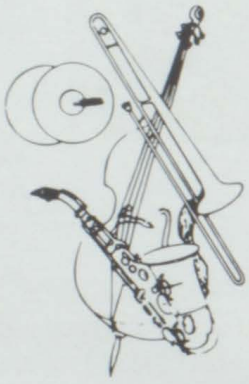

"And a one . . ."

Waiting for Band Conductor DeBoer.

Sitting down on the job.

What happened to the bass section?

Miss Peterson.

This year's Junior High Chorus participated in 3 concerts and sang in a festival at DeWitt. They also had a small group contest in March. Miss Peterson commented, "This chorus is a bunch of enthusiastic students who have been fun to work with and have shown much improvement through the year."
